As contact person, on behalf of the subject

organizer of the event Towards The Economy of Francesco with the title

---

I subscribe to and adhere to this policy in accordance with the spirit and principles which animate The Economy of Francesco.

In particular, I declare that:

1. The event cannot be for profit. The only case in which, during the event, it will be possible to collect contributions is to finance grants for participation in the event The Economy of Francesco. I will communicate this choice to the organization by sending an email to: community@francescoeconomy.org to receive information about how to transfer the contribution.
2. The event cannot have any commercial objective. Speakers or the organizer will not be able to promote their own products, books or commercial activities or those of a company for which they work.
3. The event may not be used for propaganda purposes or for political campaigning.
4. The organizer is not involved in activities related to areas incompatible with the identified spirit and ideals of The Economy of Francesco: arms, tobacco, gambling, pornography, fossil fuels, alcohol, violations of fundamental rights (exploitation, etc.), potentially polluting processes and not respectful of the environment.

The organizer also undertakes to:

1. To organize this event Towards The Economy of Francesco drawing its main inspiration from the letter of the Pope, to give voice to young people, through interdisciplinary workshops, seminars, conferences, joining together theory and practice.
2. Use the official logo 'Towards The Economy of Francesco' which can be downloaded from the website, bearing in mind the user manual.
3. Inform the participants of the possible subsequent publication on the website www.francescoeconomy.org (we recommend the request for a signed authorization for the use of images and multimedia materials).
4. If possible, send an account of the success of the event by e-mail with a short text and photos to: community@francescoeconomy.org.
