

The Economics of Fraternity

From Lived Reality
to Measured Impact

VISA INFORMATION

If you require a visa to attend the event, please read the following information carefully: Who needs a visa? Participants from outside the Schengen Area or the host country may require a visa to enter. We recommend checking with the relevant embassy or consulate in your country to verify visa requirements well in advance. You can also check here: <https://www.auswaertiges-amt.de/en/visa-service/231148-231148>

Visa support letters

Please note:

- Visa support letters will be issued only after your registration and full payment are completed.
- The letter will include your full name, passport number, role in the event, and dates of attendance.
- We do not liaise directly with embassies or consulates on behalf of applicants.

To request a visa support letter, please contact us at visa@francescoeconomy.org with:

- Full name (as on passport)
- Passport number
- Date of birth
- Nationality
- Mailing address
- Purpose of visit
- Registration confirmation

Timing

Please initiate your visa application as early as possible. We are not responsible for delayed or rejected applications.

Visa-related refunds

- If your visa application is refused, our refund policy is as follows:
- You must notify us in writing at least 10 working days before the event by sending an email to: visa@francescoeconomy.org
- and staff@francescoeconomy.org with the subject line: CANCELLATION OF PARTICIPATION - VISA REFUSED
- Please include a document proving the visa refusal.
- Refunds may be granted; however, an administrative fee—typically 40%—will be deducted, in accordance with the general

Cancellation Policy for all participants.

If you fail to notify us within the specified timeframe or if your visa application is submitted too late, no refund will be issued.
